Dec. 7. 1980

Dear Harold,

How are you? I heard through Sylvia that you had some health problems recently. I certainly hope you're feeling better now.

I just received a copy of Guth and Wrone's Bibliography. It is obviously a very important contribution. I note they refer to you as the premier authority, and of course, no one with any knowledge of the case' history could disagree with that assessment.

Your contribution, in terms of effort, quantity, and quality, has been immense and indispensable.

I don't believe that in the entire history of our country has a single individual performed so sustained and meaningful an effort on behalf of historic truth and justice; and this despite the determined opposition of most of the organs of national government and media -- as have you these past two decades.

Harold, yours has been an achievement of truly heroic proportions, one for which your fellow citizens, both contemporaries and future generations, will be in your debt for as long as our nation survives.

I send you and Lillian -- whom I know has shared your great effort and the inevitable hardships that your work has entailed -- my deepest gratitude and congratulations.

I also send you both my best wishes for a Happy Hannukah, a Merry Christmas, and a Happy & Healthy New Year!

Sincerely,

Ray
